

A native Washingtonian, Harry was born in Washington, DC and grew up in Washington and Bethesda, Maryland where he attended Walter Johnson High School. After high school Harry went on to Montgomery College and the University of Maryland.

Having been in the turf care business for more than 28 years, Harry has received a number of accolades for his contributions to the industry. He has served on the board of directors of numerous associations within the green industry. He has extensive experience, having served in many capacities in his career as a wholesale distributor to the turfgrass industry.

Harry is capable of handling any job that is asked of him but his real passion is interacting with people. He is committed to providing the best service and quality turfgrass products and programs to his customers, ensuring that they get what they want, when they want it. Working with vendors, servicing customers, helping his sales force, supporting his staff, these are his strengths, expertise and choices of how he spends his day.

It is this diversified background and many years of industry experience that makes Harry the ideal addition to Newsom Seed as we continue our growth and commitment to superior service.
